Basic Employment Law

Employment law is complicated. It is considered a specialty area in the legal profession. The purpose of this overview is to briefly review some requirements in a general way. This overview should in no way be considered a substitute for competent legal counsel.

When You Hire an Employee:

1. It is important to not discriminate against an applicant because of their age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or disability.
2. You must hire people who are authorized to work in the United States – citizens and legal aliens with proper documentation. You are required to complete a Form I-9 to verify their authorization to work. Employers must enter the date the employee began or will begin work for pay on the I-9. If the actual date of hire (first date of providing services for pay) for the employee changes from the date entered, it is the employer's responsibility to correct and resubmit the form to Acumen within three days of the actual date of hire.
 - To review Frequently Asked Questions about Form I-9, please visit www.acumenfiscalagent.com/Resources.
3. Please allow up to two weeks before scheduling your employee's first day of work to be sure all federal and any required state or program clearances have been received.

Avoid the temptation to classify your workers as independent contractors, as they probably are not. If you have any questions, please call us at (866) 811-3099.

After You Hire an Employee:

1. The work environment must be “free from recognized hazards that are causing or are likely to cause death or serious physical harm.”
2. Your employees should not be subjected to circumstances that would create a “hostile work environment.” Such an environment can be many things, but an employee should never be subjected to sexual harassment or belittlement, jokes, or prejudice because of their age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or disability.
3. You must pay your employees at least minimum wage.

If You Need to Terminate Employment:

It is important that you treat people professionally and fairly, and you cannot terminate or lay off an employee because of their age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or disability. Please refer to the North Carolina Department of Labor website (below) for more information.

The North Carolina Department of Labor states, “if you are discharging an employee, all wages must be paid by next regular pay date.” If you decide to discharge an employee, please contact Acumen right away.

For free information, you can access:

Recommended Reading: The Employer's Legal Handbook, published by Nolo. This book can be purchased online at www.nolo.com or from area bookstores.

Fraud

Fraud is committed when an EMPLOYER or EMPLOYEE is untruthful regarding services provided, in order to obtain improper payment. The Fraud Unit investigates and prosecutes people who commit fraud. Fraud is a felony, and conviction can lead to substantial penalties. Examples of fraud include:

- Signing or submitting a timesheet for services that were not actually provided.
- Signing or submitting a timesheet for services provided by a different person.
- Signing or submitting a timesheet for services that were reimbursed by another source.
- Signing or submitting a duplicate timesheet for reimbursement from the same source.

Overtime

Overtime is defined as “work in excess of 40 hours in a work week.” Overtime must be paid at time-and-one-half of the employee’s regular hourly wage. A work week is defined as Sunday to Saturday.

Reports

We will provide you with a report each month that summarizes your employee’s time, your monthly allocation, and declining balance, so you are aware of the remaining amount. It is important to read this report and to call us with any questions that you may have.

Communication

Acumen is committed to keeping the lines of communication open. Please do not hesitate to contact us at anytime in one of the following ways:

1. If you have a question, you can email customerservice@acumenfiscalagent.com or call (866) 811-3099 to speak with a representative. Remember, the call is toll-free and we’d love to hear from you. Our TTY toll-free number is (888) 853-0010.
2. If you have a suggestion, complaint, or concern, please contact Acumen’s President directly by calling toll-free (888) 530-7473 and leaving a message. Your call will be returned within two business days.

2. Represent me as an employer for employer-related tax reporting purposes, by signing Form 2678.
3. Handle all correspondence regarding employer tax reporting issues.
4. Serve as my Full Service Agent for unemployment and withholding tax purposes. As such, Acumen shall provide all services for me, the employer, (tax, benefits, and appeals) and shall receive all documents related to my, the employer's, North Carolina unemployment and withholding tax account that would otherwise have been sent to me.
5. Receive confidential information and perform any and all acts the employer can perform relating to matters pertaining to North Carolina's unemployment compensation law and state tax withholding regulations effective signature date forward; subject to revocation.
6. Electronically send me (e.g. e-mail) information including, but not limited to: employer and/or employee enrollment information, account statement reports, good-to-go information, and new products or services.

Any limitations to this authorization must be specifically stated and attached. This authorization revokes all earlier authorizations and powers of attorney on file, and shall remain in effect until receipt of a written notice of revocation or a subsequent authorization or power of attorney by the North Carolina Department of Labor and/or North Carolina Department of Revenue.

What am I really authorizing?

- Your appointment grants Acumen Fiscal Agent a limited power of attorney to act as your agent for acts required under Section 3504 and Chapters 21, 22, 24, and/or 25 of Subchapter C of the Internal Revenue Code, and for taxes required under 3301.

Worker's Compensation Claim Reporting Guidelines for Employees

If there has been a workplace injury or accident, please take the following action:

- If the injury or accident is of a serious nature, seek medical attention immediately.
- Employees must report the injury immediately to their employer.
- Employers must report the injury as soon as possible even if it is a weekend or holiday to the Acumen Workers' Compensation Department.
- To report to Acumen, call 866-472-2297. If you get voicemail when you call, leave a message with your name, call back number, state you are located in, a brief description of the incident and if the injury is of a serious nature (including hospitalization (not ER room & home release), immediate surgery status, critical care or death) .
- Messages of injuries of a serious nature will be returned even on a weekend or holiday. All other messages will be returned the following business day.

Timely reporting of any injury that goes beyond First Aid treatment to Acumen's Workers' Compensation Department is important. When reporting, be prepared with the following information:

- Time & place the incident occurred as well as how it occurred.
- Explain in as much detail as possible what happened to cause the injury.
- Take pictures of the area where the incident occurred, if you are able to do so, and any other photos you are able to obtain that may be helpful to the claim.

Contact Acumen's Workers' Compensation Administrator. Direct line is 866-472-2297.
